

Print this Page

Guys and dolls up for grabs

Guys and Dolls (Mayor Hazel McCallion). Bid on a dinner and show with Mayor Hazel McCallion with five of your friends tomorrow. The mayor, Michael Burgess and 16 bachelors and bachelorettes have volunteered to be auctioned off in the Guys and Dolls Charity Auction at the Mississauga Convention Centre. All of the proceeds go towards supporting pediatric oncology programs at the Credit Valley Hospital File photo

Julia Le

February 4, 2009

Eligible bachelors and bachelorettes can be yours for an evening at the right price.

You'll also help support the Credit Valley Hospital at the same time.

The event is the Guys and Dolls Charity Auction, happening at the Mississauga Convention Centre tomorrow. You can bid on a dinner and an evening with one of 16 men and women. With doors opening at 6:30 p.m., guests can mix and mingle before the main event. Enjoy refreshments and cocktails and participate in a raffle.

All of the proceeds go towards supporting pediatric oncology programs at CVH.

Tickets cost $25 and include light refreshments, two drinks and a $25 voucher that can be used on the bidding.

Guests can also bid on a dinner-and-show at the Living Arts Centre with Mayor Hazel McCallion and five friends or a dinner with Michael Burgess.

For more information, call 416-522-0499 or email diannesm@sympatico.ca.

jle@mississauga.net

This article is for personal use only courtesy of Mississauga.com - a division of Metroland Media Group Ltd.